"We can have it all"

Living in a small country like Cyprus and coming from an even smaller village, it wasn't "normal" or "traditional" to follow your dreams, pursuing a career and staying single up until the age of 33! I did all that and much more when I decided that the corporate world didn't fulfil me, instead it was making me sick. I left to follow my passion in writing and speaking and started creating success based on my own terms.

My passion is helping women to step up, to believe in themselves, go forward with their dreams and ambitions and excel in any area they choose to do so. This led me to write my first book, 'Women, Motherhood & Independence' on the subject of balancing life and work. Also to becoming one of the co-founders of YinAlithea Cyprus Women's Conference and creating various online products, all with the aim of helping women to find their own work life balance and to begin enjoying life more.

As a mother of two young children, I know first-hand how challenging and overwhelming it is to do everything, be there for everyone and at the same time devote time for us and the things that we enjoy doing. I strongly believe that each one of us has a unique talent, a gift, and each one of us is special. What we need to understand is that we don't need permission, and we don't have to sacrifice our dreams in order to have people love and respect us more. We can have it all.
